The committee has a continuing existence and may meet, act and conduct its business at any place within this State, during the sessions of the Legislature or any recess thereof, and in the interim period between sessions.

9141. The committee shall consist of five Members of the Senate and five Members of the Assembly who shall be selected in the manner provided for in the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly. LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

STATE CAPITOL
SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA, February 1, 1957

THE HONORABLE ARTHUR H. BREED, JR., Chairman and Members of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

GENTLEMEN: In accordance with the provisions of Chapter 1667, Statutes of 1951, and Joint Rule No. 37 of the Senate and Assembly creating the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, defining the duties of the committee and giving it authority to employ a legislative auditor, I submit an analysis of the Budget Bill of the State of California for the Fiscal Year July 1, 1957, to June 30, 1958.

The duty of the committee in this respect is set forth in Joint Rule No. 37 as follows:

“It shall be the duty of the committee to ascertain facts and make recommendations to the Legislature and to the houses thereof concerning the State Budget, the revenues and expenditures of the State, and of the organization and functions of the State, its departments, subdivisions and agencies, with a view of reducing the cost of the State Government, and securing greater efficiency and economy.”

I should again like to express my appreciation to the Department of Finance and other state agencies for their generous cooperation in facilitating the preparation of this report, and to the members of the staff of the committee who have worked diligently to prepare the report within a very limited time in order that it might be made available to the Senate Finance Committee and Ways and Means Committee of the Assembly during the constitutional recess.

Respectfully submitted,

A. ALAN POST
Legislative Auditor
